

Date: Monday, March 1st 2010

Time: 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Location: Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, 230 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois

Who should come? Elected Officials, Trustees, Municipal staff, County staff and treasurers

Business and Professional People for the Public Interest, Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning, Metropolitan Mayors Caucus and the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago are pleased to invite you to the release of “Confronting the Vacant Property Challenge: A Tool Kit for Municipalities.” This document describes successful strategies that communities, both locally and nationally, have developed to address the challenges arising from vacant buildings left behind by foreclosure. Featured topics include: Creating a Vacant Building Registry, Building a Vacant Property Early Warning Database, and Recovering Costs of Property Maintenance.

We would be glad to have you, and a member of your staff, join us for this important event. The registration deadline for this event is Tuesday, February 23, 2010.

There is no charge for this event; however, attendance will be limited to allow for active participation by all attendees. As a result, conference reservations will be accepted on a first-received basis. Please note that you must register in advance for this event; persons who have not registered in advance will not be admitted to the event. For security purposes a government issued photo I.D. is needed for entry into the building. Event sign-in will begin at 1:30 pm. Beverages and a light snack will be provided and the program will end at 5:00 p.m.

Please Register with Beth Dever at the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus:
beth.dever@mayorscaucus.org or 312-201-4507

We hope that you will be able to join us at the event. If you have any questions about the agenda, please give us a call.
